The Global Market for Reverse Logistics 2024-2028

The global reverse logistics market is projected to grow by USD 398.9 billion from 2023 to 2028, with a CAGR of 8.8%. This growth is driven by the expanding e-commerce sector, increasing cross-border trade, and the adoption of multimodal transport solutions. Key segments include recalls, commercial returns, and end-of-life returns, with major end-users being e-commerce, retail, and healthcare. The Asia-Pacific region is expected to dominate the market due to rising consumer demand and healthcare expenditures, particularly for temperature-sensitive products.
